

2015 ALBERS HUMANITIES FESTIVAL

Dickinson State University
Celebrates the 1960s

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

THURSDAY, APRIL 9

4:00-5:30pm The Electric Kool-Aid Acid Test: Counterculture Movements | Presentation/Panel
DSU, Beck Auditorium | Karen Hale Lewis, Paula Martin, Marie Snavelly, and DSU students

7:00pm On the Path to Justice: The Legacy of Judge Ronald Davies and Desegregation | Film/Panel
DSU, Beck Auditorium | Tom Davies, Art Philips, Carl Oberholtzer, and DSU students

FRIDAY, APRIL 10

4:30-5:30pm You Say You Want a Revolution: Integrative Learning, the 1960s, and the Contemporary Classroom | Presentation/Panel
DSU, Beck Auditorium | Margaret Barnhart, Lisa Daniels, and Holly McBee

7:00pm Monkey See, (Monkey Hear), Monkey Do | Performance
DSU, Stickney Auditorium | Jarvis Jahner, Jeremy Wohletz, Pattie Carr, and DSU students

THURSDAY, APRIL 16

4:00-5:30pm The Dr. Frank Varney Experience or the Tie-Dyed Classroom | Presentation/Panel
DSU, Beck Auditorium | Frank Varney and DSU students

7:00pm Silent Spring: 1960s Environmentalism and the Current Oil Boom | Presentation/Panel
DSU, Beck Auditorium | Jim Fuglie, Mark Trechock, and Carmen Waldo

FRIDAY, APRIL 17

4:00-5:30pm Political Climate Change: The Cold War and the Berlin Wall | Presentation/Panel
DSU, Beck Auditorium | Eric Grabowsky, David Meier, and Kimberly Porter

7:00pm The Vietnam War: Strangers in a Foreign Land | Presentation/Panel
DSU, Beck Auditorium | Larry Gregory and David Logosz

8:00pm Psychedelic Sounds | Performance
DSU, Beck Auditorium | Laura Potter and the DSU Concert Band

www.dickinsonstate.edu/evalbers

PROGRAM SPONSORS

A statewide nonprofit dedicated to transforming lives and strengthening communities through educational and cultural experiences that allow everyone the opportunity to reach their full human potential.

DSU Department of Language and Literature

Special thanks to Brenna Gerhardt; Diane Melbye and Jamie Arnold, Attorneys at Law; and Elena Stichel